A native of Sterling, Colorado, Rhonda knows the value of hard work and persistence. She skillfully applies these traits responsibly as a collection's paralegal. Rhonda began her legal career in the mid-1980s and is a primary contact on the consumer portfolio collection cases. Strict adherence to deadlines keeps the collection cycle moving at optimal speed. Rhonda manages projects from the intake phase through the final payment with efficiency and speed. Her tasks are accomplished through checklists, collections experience and daily interaction with the attorney.

Rhonda has 2 small children and enjoys camping and boating in the mountains with her family. Rhonda deserves much credit for the firm's success in consumer collections and is a valuable member of our team.
